

Tri-State Creation Care Tree Action Day

Saturday, Nov. 11th, 2017, 10:30 am to noon
at Habitat for Humanity Evansville Office
560 East Diamond (The Town Center North Mall)

Featuring the presentation:

“The Right Tree For Me and how to make it happy”

by Evansville City Arborist, Shawn Dickerson, on how to choose the right tree and the proper planting and care of it.

AND

A planting of trees at several Habitat for Humanity build sites

After the presentation, we will offer all the option to go out to a Habitat for Humanity build site to help plant and bless a tree.

Families, make this tree planting day a family affair.

Receive a free tree too!

All who attend, will receive if they wish a tree sapling to take home to plant.

(Trees may not be available by the Nov. date due to the warm fall.

In that case, a certificate will be given for delivery in Dec.)

A Tri-State Creation Care Event

Tri-State Creation Care is a coalition of faith congregations dedicated to encouraging the care of our earth and its resources.
