

The Habitat Community's Monthly E-Update

Headed for Home with Habitat and the Evansville Otters, sponsored by Eyewitness News!

July 9 • 6:35 PM • Bosse Field

On Friday, July 9, we will be at Bosse Field for Headed for Home with Habitat and the Otters, sponsored by Eyewitness News – WEHT/WTWV. It will be an evening of baseball, concessions, cash prizes, and entertainment! The Otters will be playing against the Schaumburg Boomers!

The event will be full of great giveaways and chances to win! The first 500 people through the gate can take a free t-shirt specially designed for the event. One person will walk away with $500 and five will walk away with $100 each, courtesy of the Otters! Buy a ticket to be entered into our half pot and take home up to $2,499* while benefitting Habitat in the process!

Join our “500 Voice Choir” to sing the National Anthem and “Take Me Out to the Ball Game.” Interested folks can contact Holly Edmond for more information at 812-423-5623 ext. 231 or hedmond@evansvillehabitat.org! Choir participants will receive a free t-shirt!

Amount based on number of entry tickets purchased, not to exceed $5000, with Habitat for Humanity receiving the other half of the total.*

Thank you, Front Door Sponsor!

Back before we first began building in St. Theresa Place subdivision, The Hollander Group/Baird and the Baird Foundation made a commitment—they promised to fund the front doors on all 14 homes in the development. We appreciate their dedication to touching the lives of as many local families as possible and to opening the door to a more secure future.
